

Please keep the Indiana law that restricts phone sales calls intact. I pay my monthly phone bill so that I can use my phone and not so salespeople can use my dime to disturb me. If they payed for my phone than they would have a right to call me. But I don't want to be disturbed by phone calls from solicitors. Thanks
Donald Noah